

5-6-1954

Bulloch Times (Statesboro News-Statesboro Eagle)

Notes

Condition varies. Some pages missing or in poor condition.

Originals provided for filming by the publisher.

Gift of Statesboro Herald and the Bulloch County Historical Society.

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/bulloch-news-issues>

Recommended Citation

"Bulloch Times (Statesboro News-Statesboro Eagle)" (1954). Bulloch County Newspapers (Single Issues). 2748.
<https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/bulloch-news-issues/2748>

This newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Bulloch County Historical Newspapers at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in Bulloch County Newspapers (Single Issues) by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.

AUCTION STEERS BRING GOOD PRICES

WHERE NEEDED

AUCTION STEERS
BRING GOOD PRICES

Deal's Grand Champion Is Top-Notcher on the Local Market Here Last Week

The eighty-three steers entered in the fat stock show last week sold for an average of 23.55 cents per pound.

Booby Deal's grand champion steer sold to Franklin Drive-In Restaurant.

The heaviest buyers on the show sale were Robbins Packing Co., Colonial Stores, Olin and Sam Franklin, C. W. Zetterower, Mrs. Bryant's Kitchen, Aldred Brothers, Carl Beasley, Medden Packing Co., Armour & Company, White Provision Company and Harry Shore.

Tommy Rocker took first in the light ring class, with Winston Anderson, Dean Hendley, Remer Dekle, Johnny Dekle, Jimmy Akins, Ronnie Griffith and Arnold Harville follow-

Billy Clifton took first in the medium light ring with Carl Akins, Tommy Rocker, Mary Dekle, W. C. Strickland, Ronald Adams, Ronnie Griffith, Bonnie Dekle and Gerald Strickland following.

de weight ring with Jappy Akins, Carl Akins, Smets Blitch, Bobby Joe Cason, John Thomas Hodges, Ronnie Griffith, William Smith, Joseph Harville and Jerry Sharpe following.

Bobby Deal with the champion took first place in the light heavy ring with Gille Clifton, Bobby Joe Cason, Misä Marie Roberts took first place in the heavy weight ring; Bunny Deal, second; Billy Clifton, John Thomas Hodges and Bobby Joe Cason.

In addition to the regular show prizes J. V. Tillman, operator of the Bulloch Stockyard, where the sale was held, presented in behalf of several businessmen and organizations prizes of $200, $100, $75, $50 and $25 to the top five winners.

The additional prize money given the five top place winners in the show by Mr. Tillman was donated by the Sea Island Bank, E. A. Smith Grain Co., Planters Cotton Warehouse, Bulloch Milling Co., Smith-Tillman Mortuary, Alderman Roofing Co., Woodcock Motor Co., Statesboro.

Truck & Tractor Co., Bulloch Tractor Co., S. W. Lewis, Inc., L. A. Waters, Otis Waters Grocery, B. B. Morris Grocery, Thayer Monument Co., A. B. McDougald, B. W. Knight, Friendly Restaurant, Lannie F. Simmons, Central Georgia Gas Co., W. C. Atkins & Son, City Dairy, Rushing &

Kennedy, Akins Appliance, Farmers Hardware, H. P. Jones & Son, W. W. Brannen, C. R. Pound, Hartley & Procter, Statesboro Buggy & Wagon, Mason Milling Co., Dorris R. Cason, Hoke S. Brunson and Robbins Packing Co.

STATESBORO YOUTH TO ENTER WIREMAN SCHOOL
Camp Chaffee, Ark., April 30.—
 Pvt. Julian E. Waters, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Waters, Statesboro,
 Ga., has been selected to attend the Fifth Armored Division Field Wire-

man School here. During the eight-weeks course he will be trained in the installation of military field wire communications systems, and the operation of field telephone switchboards. Part of the course will be devoted to practical work in pole-

MR. AND MRS. ROCKETT HOSTS
Wendel Rockett, superintendent of Gulf Life Insurance, and Mrs. Rockett were hosts at a delightful dinner Thursday evening at the Elms.

gents and their wives as guests. Courses were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Hockett and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Burden, Millen; Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Millerbee, Reidsville; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waters, Statesboro, and Mr.

for natural
"build-up"

pantie fan or not, you'll be completely different new Gosson to ensure absolute leg
Of nylon tissue

$7.50

MINKOVITZ & SON

Here it is, the pretty, plunging, new padded member of Gossard's FLAIR bra family. In leno elastic with perforated lightweight foam rubber in the embroidered cotton cups. White Sizes 30-36 AA, A, B cups. $1000

and Mrs. Waldo Kicklighter, Glennville.

Social : Clubs : Personal

MRS. ARTHUR TURNER, Editor
66 East Main St. Phone 140-7

Purely Personal

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hodges spent Friday in Savannah.

Phil Morris, Tech student, spent the week end at his home here.

Miss Dell Ellis, of Register, spent several days this week with Mrs. John Everett.

Joe G. Watson spent the week end in Athens with Mr. and Mrs. Durward Watson.

E. M. Mount has returned to Gainesville after being here for several days on business.

Mrs. Ida Matz and daughter, Phyllis, will spend the week end at their Savannah Beach home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Crouse and children, James and Kay, spent Sunday at Savannah Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith and daughters, Martha Sue and Helen, spent the week end in Atlanta.

Miss Lucy Fox, of Savannah, was the week end guest of Miss Ora Franklin and Mrs. F. Anderson.

Si Waters, University of Georgia student, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Loy Waters.

Mr. and Mrs. John Godbee and children, Johnnie and Lynn, were visitors in Savannah Tuesday afternoon.

Eddie Hodges, University of Georgia student, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Hodges.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry McArthur and daughters, Deal and Henrietta, of Vidalia, spent Sunday with Mrs. B. A. Deal.

L. (Je) and Mrs. Billy Holland and small son, Steven, of Jacksonville, were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Coleman and daughter, Claire, of Augusta, spent last week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Godbee and children, Johnnie, Lynn and Kittle, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Godbee, Sr., at Sardis.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Byrd and daughter, Marty, spent the week end in Montgomery, Ala., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Jefferson.

Miss Donelle Thompson, of the University of Georgia, will spend Mother's Day week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Jones, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Olliff, Sr., left Saturday by motor for Hot Springs, Ark., where they will spend two weeks.

Marian Pate Brown and Bill Brown have returned to their home in Brunswick after spending awhile with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lovett Bennett and little daughters, Carolyn and Barbara, of Sylvania, spent a few days last week end with Mr. and Mrs. Gorman Neville.

Cpl. Bobby Smith, of Camp Gordon, who is spending the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Smith, Mrs. H. H. Cowart spent the week end with relatives in Atlanta.

Mrs. James H. Burnard and Mrs. W. H. Burnard, of Savannah, Mrs. A. H. Anderson, North Augusta, S. C., and Mrs. Grady Fluke, Brooklet, formed a group visiting in Statesboro Tuesday.

Sammy Allen, Bill Lee and Walter Gilbreth, all of Griffin, enroute to Savannah for the Georgia Key Club convention, were overnight guests during the past week of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Olliff, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cone spent the week end in Thomasville as guests of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Cone, and attended the Rose Show. They left Thomasville for Florida, where they will spend some time.

Little Janet and Carol Echeverre have returned home after spending last week with their grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Futch, while their parents were attending an insurance convention in Hollywood Beach, Fla.

Ray Hutchinson, of Winter Haven, Fla., spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Bowen, and was accompanied by his wife and little daughter, Holly, who had spent two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bowen.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wilson have with this week their grandchildren, Peggy and Ricky Hinely, of Jacksonville. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hinely accompanied their children here and spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson.

Mrs. Willis Waters is spending awhile in Charlotte, N. C., with her daughters, Mrs. Harry Griffin and Mrs. Chester Welch. She was accompanied there by Mrs. B. B. Morris and Mrs. J. B. Johnson, who spent the week end with their sister, Mrs. Griffin and Mrs. Welch.

AKINS-BROWN

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Akins, of Clanton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Joan Tera, to Cpl. Doyce O'Neal Brown, son of Mrs. Era Brown, of Statesboro, and the late Mr. Brown. Miss Akins is a student in the Clanton High School and will graduate in May. Cpl. Brown is presently stationed at Ft. Rucker, where he is a drill instructor in the Marine Recruiting Training Battalion. The date of the wedding will be announced later.

FINESSE CLUB

Members of the Finesse Club were delightfully entertained Thursday evening by Mrs. Jack Rimes at her home on Jewel Drive. She used red roses and other garden flowers as decorations, and served a social course. For high score Mrs. Khaki Herrington won a bridge cover; an ashtray as floating prize went to Mrs. Mooney Prosser; for cut, Mrs. Ray Darley won planters, and novelty salt and peppers went to Mrs. Jerry Howland and Mrs. E. F. Anderson.

Si Waters, University of Georgia student, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Loy Waters.

Mr. and Mrs. John Godbee and children, Johnnie and Lynn, were visitors in Savannah Tuesday afternoon.

Eddie Hodges, University of Georgia student, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Hodges.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry McArthur and daughters, Deal and Henrietta, of Vidalia, spent Sunday with Mrs. B. A. Deal.

L. (Je) and Mrs. Billy Holland and small son, Steven, of Jacksonville, were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Coleman and daughter, Claire, of Augusta, spent last week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Godbee and children, Johnnie, Lynn and Kittle, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Godbee, Sr., at Sardis.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Byrd and daughter, Marty, spent the week end in Montgomery, Ala., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Jefferson.

Miss Donelle Thompson, of the University of Georgia, will spend Mother's Day week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Jones, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Olliff, Sr., left Saturday by motor for Hot Springs, Ark., where they will spend two weeks.

Marian Pate Brown and Bill Brown have returned to their home in Brunswick after spending awhile with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lovett Bennett and little daughters, Carolyn and Barbara, of Sylvania, spent a few days last week end with Mr. and Mrs. Gorman Neville.

Cpl. Bobby Smith, of Camp Gordon, who is spending the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Smith, Mrs. H. H. Cowart spent the week end with relatives in Atlanta.

Mrs. James H. Burnard and Mrs. W. H. Burnard, of Savannah, Mrs. A. H. Anderson, North Augusta, S. C., and Mrs. Grady Fluke, Brooklet, formed a group visiting in Statesboro Tuesday.

Sammy Allen, Bill Lee and Walter Gilbreth, all of Griffin, enroute to Savannah for the Georgia Key Club convention, were overnight guests during the past week of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Olliff, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cone spent the week end in Thomasville as guests of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Cone, and attended the Rose Show. They left Thomasville for Florida, where they will spend some time.

Little Janet and Carol Echeverre have returned home after spending last week with their grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Futch, while their parents were attending an insurance convention in Hollywood Beach, Fla.

Ray Hutchinson, of Winter Haven, Fla., spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Bowen, and was accompanied by his wife and little daughter, Holly, who had spent two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bowen.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wilson have with this week their grandchildren, Peggy and Ricky Hinely, of Jacksonville. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hinely accompanied their children here and spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson.

Mrs. Willis Waters is spending awhile in Charlotte, N. C., with her daughters, Mrs. Harry Griffin and Mrs. Chester Welch. She was accompanied there by Mrs. B. B. Morris and Mrs. J. B. Johnson, who spent the week end with their sister, Mrs. Griffin and Mrs. Welch.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Livingston, of Charleston, S. C., announce the birth of a son, Ivan Solomon, April 16th. Mrs. Livingston was formerly Miss Evelyn Blackburn, of Statesboro.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Abbott announce the birth of a daughter, Susan Faye, May 3, at the Bulloch County Hospital. Mrs. Abbott was the former Miss Virginia Parker, of Savannah.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lanier, of Atlanta, announce the birth of twin daughters, May 2. Mrs. Lanier was formerly Miss Leola Barker, of Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman A. Deal, of Ann Arbor, Mich., announce the birth of a daughter April 22. Mrs. Deal was the former Miss Helen Ellis, of Ypsilanti, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Oren Brannen, of Wilmington, Del., announce the birth of a daughter, Margaret Louise, May 6th, at the Bulloch County Hospital. Mrs. Brannen was formerly Miss Barbara Franklin, of Statesboro.

Mr. Wallace Brodgon and children, Ann and Monroe, of Ureids, spent several days this week with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. K. DeLoach. Gordon DeLoach, of Miami, was with her parents for the week end. Friends regret that Dr. DeLoach is still confined to the Bulloch County Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Campbell entertained their children, grandchildren and friends with an egg hunt last Sunday. Those enjoying the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campbell and children, Linda and Martha Helen, of Statesboro; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Campbell and children, Florence and Robin; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Godman and children, Billie, Dennis and Chareen; Mr. Albert Godwin, of Homerville; Mr. and Mrs. Franklin, of Raleigh, N. C.; Charlie and Fred Campbell, Mrs. Roland Carnes and sons, Arthur and Ronnie, and Mrs. Lucy Manuel.

SALESMAN WANTED—Opening in city of Statesboro now for profitable home service business with well known product. Product is RAWLEIGH'S, Dept. GAC-1040-46.

Social event: The music students of the high school under direction of Miss Annie Taylor and Mrs. Alma Mullins will give a luncheon and take part in the annual fund-raising party, Saturday evening, May 13th, among those listed being Harry Davis, Eugene Garrett, Clarence Johnston, Frances Brock, Lila Baur, and Mrs. J. A. Deal, Mattie Lou Brannen, Ma Mae Strickland, Kathrine Williams, Helen Cone, Evelyn Shapline and Mary Mathews.

Forty years ago From Bulloch Times, May 14, 1914. E. L. Smith, J. C. Jones, E. C. Oliver, W. B. Johnson, W. G. Kaines and R. L. Durden, comprising a fishing party spending the week at St. Mary's.

As a result of a ten-day's meeting at the Primitive Baptist Church, which came to a close Monday morning, more than twenty members were added to the church.

J. R. Cannon, for the past year or more connected with the Georgia office, has gone to Jacksonville, where he will be associated with a commercial engraving concern.

Melon acreage in Bulloch county is large, statement recently issued showing 5,500 acres on Savannah and Statesboro; also 207 acres planted to Irish potatoes near Brooklet.

E. C. Oliver, fishing with a reel in Ogeechee river Tuesday afternoon, secured a record: Threw his minnow bait between two cypress trees; his catch and found he had caught two trout and one redbreast at the single throw; the total catch weighed fifteen pounds.

Fifty years ago From Statesboro News, May 10, 1904. On Saturday afternoon the Brooklet second nine ball team came off with Statesboro team and the score was 43 to 3 in favor of Statesboro. We are informed that there is a move to organize a chamber of commerce in Statesboro in the near future; J. G. Blitch is taking the initiative.

We notice a small quantity of wool coming into our market now; only a small quantity is brought because the number of sheep is constantly diminishing.

B. P. Maul is preparing to put a bread wagon on the streets every afternoon; he will furnish bread right at your door, which will be a great convenience.

It is reported that about five thousand pounds of fish were caught at Roberts pond when the water was turned off last week; over a hundred men took part in the fishing.

The Sandersville baseball team arrived here this morning over the Central railroad; they are expected to look out for fellows, and say they are going to show our boys a few points on how to play ball; the game will be called at 3 o'clock.

Here it is, the pretty, plunging, new padded member of Gossard's FLAIR bra family. In leno elastic with perforated lightweight foam rubber in the embroidered cotton cups. White Sizes 30-36 AA, A, B cups. $10.00

H. MINKOVITZ & SON

Visiting Minister Rev. J. W. Grooms, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Port Wentz, will be guest pastor at Calvary Baptist Church on Sunday morning, May 2. Rev. Grooms is well known and loved in this area, and all his friends have a special invitation to the services. The public is cordially invited to attend.

GREETINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Livingston, of Charleston, S. C., announce the birth of a son, Ivan Solomon, April 16th. Mrs. Livingston was formerly Miss Evelyn Blackburn, of Statesboro.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Abbott announce the birth of a daughter, Susan Faye, May 3, at the Bulloch County Hospital. Mrs. Abbott was the former Miss Virginia Parker, of Savannah.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lanier, of Atlanta, announce the birth of twin daughters, May 2. Mrs. Lanier was formerly Miss Leola Barker, of Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman A. Deal, of Ann Arbor, Mich., announce the birth of a daughter April 22. Mrs. Deal was the former Miss Helen Ellis, of Ypsilanti, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Oren Brannen, of Wilmington, Del., announce the birth of a daughter, Margaret Louise, May 6th, at the Bulloch County Hospital. Mrs. Brannen was formerly Miss Barbara Franklin, of Statesboro.

Mr. Wallace Brodgon and children, Ann and Monroe, of Ureids, spent several days this week with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. K. DeLoach. Gordon DeLoach, of Miami, was with her parents for the week end. Friends regret that Dr. DeLoach is still confined to the Bulloch County Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Campbell entertained their children, grandchildren and friends with an egg hunt last Sunday. Those enjoying the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campbell and children, Linda and Martha Helen, of Statesboro; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Campbell and children, Florence and Robin; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Godman and children, Billie, Dennis and Chareen; Mr. Albert Godwin, of Homerville; Mr. and Mrs. Franklin, of Raleigh, N. C.; Charlie and Fred Campbell, Mrs. Roland Carnes and sons, Arthur and Ronnie, and Mrs. Lucy Manuel.

SALESMAN WANTED—Opening in city of Statesboro now for profitable home service business with well known product. Product is RAWLEIGH'S, Dept. GAC-1040-46.

Social event: The music students of the high school under direction of Miss Annie Taylor and Mrs. Alma Mullins will give a luncheon and take part in the annual fund-raising party, Saturday evening, May 13th, among those listed being Harry Davis, Eugene Garrett, Clarence Johnston, Frances Brock, Lila Baur, and Mrs. J. A. Deal, Mattie Lou Brannen, Ma Mae Strickland, Kathrine Williams, Helen Cone, Evelyn Shapline and Mary Mathews.

Forty years ago From Bulloch Times, May 14, 1914. E. L. Smith, J. C. Jones, E. C. Oliver, W. B. Johnson, W. G. Kaines and R. L. Durden, comprising a fishing party spending the week at St. Mary's.

As a result of a ten-day's meeting at the Primitive Baptist Church, which came to a close Monday morning, more than twenty members were added to the church.

J. R. Cannon, for the past year or more connected with the Georgia office, has gone to Jacksonville, where he will be associated with a commercial engraving concern.

Melon acreage in Bulloch county is large, statement recently issued showing 5,500 acres on Savannah and Statesboro; also 207 acres planted to Irish potatoes near Brooklet.

E. C. Oliver, fishing with a reel in Ogeechee river Tuesday afternoon, secured a record: Threw his minnow bait between two cypress trees; his catch and found he had caught two trout and one redbreast at the single throw; the total catch weighed fifteen pounds.

Fifty years ago From Statesboro News, May 10, 1904. On Saturday afternoon the Brooklet second nine ball team came off with Statesboro team and the score was 43 to 3 in favor of Statesboro. We are informed that there is a move to organize a chamber of commerce in Statesboro in the near future; J. G. Blitch is taking the initiative.

We notice a small quantity of wool coming into our market now; only a small quantity is brought because the number of sheep is constantly diminishing.

B. P. Maul is preparing to put a bread wagon on the streets every afternoon; he will furnish bread right at your door, which will be a great convenience.

It is reported that about five thousand pounds of fish were caught at Roberts pond when the water was turned off last week; over a hundred men took part in the fishing.

The Sandersville baseball team arrived here this morning over the Central railroad; they are expected to look out for fellows, and say they are going to show our boys a few points on how to play ball; the game will be called at 3 o'clock.

Here it is, the pretty, plunging, new padded member of Gossard's FLAIR bra family. In leno elastic with perforated lightweight foam rubber in the embroidered cotton cups. White Sizes 30-36 AA, A, B cups. $10.00

H. MINKOVITZ & SON

Visiting Minister Rev. J. W. Grooms, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Port Wentz, will be guest pastor at Calvary Baptist Church on Sunday morning, May 2. Rev. Grooms is well known and loved in this area, and all his friends have a special invitation to the services. The public is cordially invited to attend.

GEORGIA THEATRE

NOW SHOWING
"She Couldn't Say No."
(Just wait 'til you see "Doe" Michich operate!) Jean Simmons, Robert Mitchum, Arthur Hunnicutt, plus News and Cartoon.

SATURDAY, MAY 8.
Big Double Feature.
"Follow The Sun."
Brought back so all could see it. (It's the real life-life and adventure of two kids from Texas—Valerie and Ben Hogan! See at the start, 2:58, 5:00, 9:00; also Abbott and Costello in "Lost in Alaska".

Mitt Green, Tom Ewell.
Starts 2:00, 4:45; 7:48 and 10:56, plus cartoon
Quis at 9 p. m.; cash prize now $45.

SUNDAY THROUGH WEDNESDAY, May 9-12.
It's Rita and Men! Men! Men!
"Miss Sadie Thompson."
yith Aldo and Joe Forster.
Plus color cartoon; regular prices.
Coming
"Beat The Devil."
May 13-14.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Livingston, of Charleston, S. C., announce the birth of a son, Ivan Solomon, April 16th. Mrs. Livingston was formerly Miss Evelyn Blackburn, of Statesboro.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Abbott announce the birth of a daughter, Susan Faye, May 3, at the Bulloch County Hospital. Mrs. Abbott was the former Miss Virginia Parker, of Savannah.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lanier, of Atlanta, announce the birth of twin daughters, May 2. Mrs. Lanier was formerly Miss Leola Barker, of Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman A. Deal, of Ann Arbor, Mich., announce the birth of a daughter April 22. Mrs. Deal was the former Miss Helen Ellis, of Ypsilanti, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Oren Brannen, of Wilmington, Del., announce the birth of a daughter, Margaret Louise, May 6th, at the Bulloch County Hospital. Mrs. Brannen was formerly Miss Barbara Franklin, of Statesboro.

Mr. Wallace Brodgon and children, Ann and Monroe, of Ureids, spent several days this week with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. K. DeLoach. Gordon DeLoach, of Miami, was with her parents for the week end. Friends regret that Dr. DeLoach is still confined to the Bulloch County Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Campbell entertained their children, grandchildren and friends with an egg hunt last Sunday. Those enjoying the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campbell and children, Linda and Martha Helen, of Statesboro; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Campbell and children, Florence and Robin; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Godman and children, Billie, Dennis and Chareen; Mr. Albert Godwin, of Homerville; Mr. and Mrs. Franklin, of Raleigh, N. C.; Charlie and Fred Campbell, Mrs. Roland Carnes and sons, Arthur and Ronnie, and Mrs. Lucy Manuel.

SALESMAN WANTED—Opening in city of Statesboro now for profitable home service business with well known product. Product is RAWLEIGH'S, Dept. GAC-1040-46.

Social event: The music students of the high school under direction of Miss Annie Taylor and Mrs. Alma Mullins will give a luncheon and take part in the annual fund-raising party, Saturday evening, May 13th, among those listed being Harry Davis, Eugene Garrett, Clarence Johnston, Frances Brock, Lila Baur, and Mrs. J. A. Deal, Mattie Lou Brannen, Ma Mae Strickland, Kathrine Williams, Helen Cone, Evelyn Shapline and Mary Mathews.

Forty years ago From Bulloch Times, May 14, 1914. E. L. Smith, J. C. Jones, E. C. Oliver, W. B. Johnson, W. G. Kaines and R. L. Durden, comprising a fishing party spending the week at St. Mary's.

As a result of a ten-day's meeting at the Primitive Baptist Church, which came to a close Monday morning, more than twenty members were added to the church.

J. R. Cannon, for the past year or more connected with the Georgia office, has gone to Jacksonville, where he will be associated with a commercial engraving concern.

Melon acreage in Bulloch county is large, statement recently issued showing 5,500 acres on Savannah and Statesboro; also 207 acres planted to Irish potatoes near Brooklet.

E. C. Oliver, fishing with a reel in Ogeechee river Tuesday afternoon, secured a record: Threw his minnow bait between two cypress trees; his catch and found he had caught two trout and one redbreast at the single throw; the total catch weighed fifteen pounds.

Fifty years ago From Statesboro News, May 10, 1904. On Saturday afternoon the Brooklet second nine ball team came off with Statesboro team and the score was 43 to 3 in favor of Statesboro. We are informed that there is a move to organize a chamber of commerce in Statesboro in the near future; J. G. Blitch is taking the initiative.

We notice a small quantity of wool coming into our market now; only a small quantity is brought because the number of sheep is constantly diminishing.

B. P. Maul is preparing to put a bread wagon on the streets every afternoon; he will furnish bread right at your door, which will be a great convenience.

It is reported that about five thousand pounds of fish were caught at Roberts pond when the water was turned off last week; over a hundred men took part in the fishing.

The Sandersville baseball team arrived here this morning over the Central railroad; they are expected to look out for fellows, and say they are going to show our boys a few points on how to play ball; the game will be called at 3 o'clock.

Here it is, the pretty, plunging, new padded member of Gossard's FLAIR bra family. In leno elastic with perforated lightweight foam rubber in the embroidered cotton cups. White Sizes 30-36 AA, A, B cups. $10.00

H. MINKOVITZ & SON

Visiting Minister Rev. J. W. Grooms, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Port Wentz, will be guest pastor at Calvary Baptist Church on Sunday morning, May 2. Rev. Grooms is well known and loved in this area, and all his friends have a special invitation to the services. The public is cordially invited to attend.

BACKWARD LOOK

TEN YEARS AGO
From Bulloch Times, May 11, 1944. Sugar 5 pounds for 25c. Maxwell House Coffee 25c per pound. The board of directors of Foremost Dairies Company this week approved the plans for a receiving station and a by-products plant for Statesboro. The fat stock show and sale which was in progress here last Thursday was agreed to have been the biggest event in the history of many big events.

Dr. A. S. Pittman, head of Georgia Teachers College, narrowly escaped death at the horns of his stock herd bull in the dairy lot on the college grounds late Sunday afternoon.

Dr. Pierce Harris, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Atlanta, was the scheduled speaker at the Rotary Club dinner for Tuesday, May 16. Dean Z. S. Henderson is chairman of the program committee.

A marriage of interest throughout South Georgia is that of Miss Mary Lou Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Moore, of Statesboro, and Coxswain Vernon Castle Scruggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Scruggs, of Hahira.

Twenty years ago From Bulloch Times, May 10, 1924. J. S. Kenan, aged 58, died Sunday morning as result of injuries to his head when he fell upon the streets Saturday about noon.

Gordon College, of Barnesville, will send a team here for a two-game series of baseball Friday and Saturday with Teachers College.

William James, outstanding colored leader of the community, for many years head of the Statesboro negro school, is desperately ill.

Fire around ten o'clock this morning in Hinton's Booth's law office called out the fire department; no considerable damage was done.

Ann Arbor, Michigan, Tribune, referring to the recent removal of Dr. M. S. Hinton from the Statesboro, Georgia, said: "Georgia's gain is great; Michigan's loss is severe."

Mass meeting of citizens called for next Saturday to consider plans for a primary for nomination of two members of the legislature from the county; A. M. Deal, W. P. Ivey and W. B. Williams are already avowed candidates.

Thirty years ago From Bulloch Times, May 8, 1924. With cotton barely beginning to show itself in most of the fields, the boll weevil has begun his attack in the most vigorous way.

Metter Kiwanis Club will be guest of Statesboro Advertising Club at a dinner to be served Monday evening at the First District & M. School. Metterites are a live bunch and their music will be a feature of the evening.

Paul B. Lewis, former resident of Brooklet, has come to make his home in Statesboro and has acquired a life insurance business hereafter operated by Statesboro Realty Company; Prentiss & Watson and Mildred K. Gentry; his family will remain in Claxton for the present.

Social event: The music students of the high school under direction of Miss Annie Taylor and Mrs. Alma Mullins will give a luncheon and take part in the annual fund-raising party, Saturday evening, May 13th, among those listed being Harry Davis, Eugene Garrett, Clarence Johnston, Frances Brock, Lila Baur, and Mrs. J. A. Deal, Mattie Lou Brannen, Ma Mae Strickland, Kathrine Williams, Helen Cone, Evelyn Shapline and Mary Mathews.

Forty years ago From Bulloch Times, May 14, 1914. E. L. Smith, J. C. Jones, E. C. Oliver, W. B. Johnson, W. G. Kaines and R. L. Durden, comprising a fishing party spending the week at St. Mary's.

As a result of a ten-day's meeting at the Primitive Baptist Church, which came to a close Monday morning, more than twenty members were added to the church.

J. R. Cannon, for the past year or more connected with the Georgia office, has gone to Jacksonville, where he will be associated with a commercial engraving concern.

Melon acreage in Bulloch county is large, statement recently issued showing 5,500 acres on Savannah and Statesboro; also 207 acres planted to Irish potatoes near Brooklet.

E. C. Oliver, fishing with a reel in Ogeechee river Tuesday afternoon, secured a record: Threw his minnow bait between two cypress trees; his catch and found he had caught two trout and one redbreast at the single throw; the total catch weighed fifteen pounds.

Fifty years ago From Statesboro News, May 10, 1904. On Saturday afternoon the Brooklet second nine ball team came off with Statesboro team and the score was 43 to 3 in favor of Statesboro. We are informed that there is a move to organize a chamber of commerce in Statesboro in the near future; J. G. Blitch is taking the initiative.

We notice a small quantity of wool coming into our market now; only a